Personal Profile:

Louis joined Flude Property Consultants in 2026 as a Surveying Executive within the Retail & Leisure team, supporting commercial property instructions across the South Coast. His role involves working across the full agency process, from undertaking property inspections, measurements and accompanied viewings to preparing marketing materials and launching new instructions to the market.

He is also responsible for producing client marketing reports, undertaking comparable property research and engaging with prospective occupiers and purchasers. Working closely with colleagues across the Retail & Leisure team, Louis provides support throughout the marketing and disposal process, helping to deliver effective outcomes for clients across a range of commercial property instructions.

Louis enjoys playing and watching rugby and cricket. In his spare time, he also enjoys the outdoors, a good book, and a pint of Guinness.
